Career Opportunity for the right candidate at the Hilton Malta

We are now recruiting for the position of

Human Resources Manager

The ideal candidate would have at least 3 years working experience as Human Resources Manager or similar, in a medium to large organisation, and be fully conversant with local employment regulations.

This position will suit an extrovert individual and necessitates a well-developed business acumen, organisational skills, excellent people management expertise, and the ability to work under pressure and honour deadlines in a busy and demanding environment. This position requires energy, drive and a career-driven focus to succeed within the five star hotel business.

Implicit in this senior executive role is the requirement to provide ongoing guidance, supervision and support, contributing in a general manner to the smooth operation of the hotel, across all departments. This involves the promotion of team spirit, customer satisfaction, recognition of company and legislative procedures and a high level of integrity and professionalism adhering to Company quality standards.

Main areas of responsibility broadly cover:

- Recruitment & Selection
- Terms & Conditions of Employment
- Training & Development
- Employee Welfare & Benefits
- Employee Relations
- Union Relations

Excellent spoken and written Maltese and English are a requirement, as well as a high level of accuracy when dealing with figures. Computer literacy in a variety of industry and standard applications such as Word, Excel and PowerPoint is mandatory.

The right candidates are requested to send a hand written application and an updated C.V. by no later than Monday 3rd December 2007 to:-

The General Manager
Hilton Malta, Portomaso PTM 01
www.hilton.com

All applications will be treated in strict confidence.
